

Exchange Visitor Programs at UConn for Visiting Scholars and Research Students

Category	Visiting Scholar Categories				Visiting Student Categories
	Short Term Scholar	Research Scholar	Professor	Specialist	Student Intern	Student Non Degree
Primary Activity	Teaching, lecturing, observing, consulting or researching.	Research, observing, or consulting in connection to a research project. May also teach or lecture with ISSS permission.	Teaching, observing or consulting. May also conduct research with ISSS permission.	Observing, consulting or demonstrating specialized knowledge or skills.	Engaged in full time (min 32 hours/week) internship or internship program at UConn	Engaged in full time (min 20 hours/week) research, internship, training or observation at UConn.
Visitor's Position in their Home Country	Professionals, scholars, faculty, administrators, researchers.	Professionals, scholars, faculty, administrators, researchers.	Professionals, scholars, faculty, administrators, researchers.	Professional with demonstrated expertise in specialized area	Enrolled student	Enrolled student
Minimum Qualifications	Earned bachelor's degree and appropriate experience in the field of scholarly Activity	Earned bachelor's degree and appropriate experience in the field of scholarly activity. The scholar may not have held any J visa category in 12 months preceding start date, unless it was STS or total program length was less than 6 months. Scholar may not have held Research Scholar or Professor category in 24 months preceding start date.	Earned bachelor's degree and appropriate experience in the field of scholarly Activity. The scholar may not have held any J visa category in 12 months preceding start date, unless it was STS or total program length was less than 6 months. Scholar may not have held Research Scholar or Professor category in 24 months preceding start date.	Demonstrated expertise in a field of specialized knowledge or Skill.	Student's internship at UConn fulfills an academic component of home country degree. Student will return to complete degree following the internship. May be compensated through payroll.	Student's funding source must be at least 51% non-personal funds (e.g. scholarship, grant) OR student's visit to UConn occurs in connection to an institutional or government agreement.
Program Length	1 day - 6 months	3 weeks - 5 years	3 weeks - 5 years	3 weeks – 1 year	3 weeks - 1 year	3 weeks – 2 years.
UConn Titles	Special payroll titles, paid or gratis. Visiting faculty titles.	Special payroll titles for research, paid or gratis. Visiting faculty titles. Postdoctoral	Special payroll titles for teaching, including adjunct faculty. Visiting faculty titles.	Special payroll titles, paid or gratis. Visiting faculty titles, end dated professional	Visiting Student special payroll title. Paid or gratis.	Visiting Student (gratis). Smart HR Transaction required.

		Fellow.		staff titles.
Bars/Restrictions	May not repeat Short Term Scholar program within same academic year. No clinical activity.	After program ends, visitor will be subject to 24-month bar on returning to U.S. for another Research Scholar/Professor exchange program. No clinical activity.	After program ends, visitor will be subject to 24-month bar on returning to U.S. for another Research Scholar/Professor Exchange program. No clinical activity.	No clinical activity.	No clinical activity.	Student may not be compensated by UConn for work that comprises the primary program activity. No clinical activity.
Notes	Allows for same activity as Research Scholar/Professor without 24-month bar on repeat participation, but maximum 6-month program length.				Program must be structured as an internship, with DS-7002 outlining terms of the internship. Faculty host must evaluate Intern at mid-point and end of internship.	Student may work for UConn up to 20-hours per week on the side, with ISSS written authorization.